

WILL CLEAN UP CITY THIS WEEK

Mayor W. Reid McKee Issues Orders That Premises be Cleaned Up Promptly

We were very glad indeed to see Mayor W. Reid McKee issue a notice last week setting the date of clean-up week. The notice was as follows:

Clean-up week beginning Monday, April 28, 29, 30, May 1, 2, 3, inclusive. During this week wagons will go over the city and haul away without cost, all rubbish, trash, etc., which must be placed in suitable containers and left at the curb. Citizens are urged to rid their premises of all unsightly and unhealthy refuse and to put their back yards, vacant lots, etc., in order for the summer. The ladies of the various Women's Clubs of the city will co-operate with the city authorities in this clean-up campaign and the health officials will make an inspection of the city following the clean-up to see that sanitary conditions are right. Prosecutions will be ordered in cases where citizens fail to get their premises in proper, clean and sanitary condition within reasonable time.

W. R. McKEE, Mayor
City of Mt. Sterling.

TELEPHONE RATES INCREASED

As will be seen by an advertisement appearing in this issue, the rates of the Cumberland Tel. & Tel. Co. will be increased beginning May 1st. Business house and office telephone rate will be increased from $2.50 to $3.50 per month, residences within the city limits from $1.50 to $2.00 per month with a slightly cheaper rate for party line system. Country rates, 5 party line system base rate of $1.25 per month to city limits, 20c per half mile for the first five miles and 30c per half mile beyond that distance. The advertisement was brought to us a short time before going to press with a mass of data regarding the increased rates and after we have had time to go into the matter in detail we will possibly have more to say on the subject.

Mr. William Randal, late of the U. S. Navy, made an address at a recent meeting of the Woman's History Club, which proved very interesting and was very much enjoyed.

DRY ACT WILL BE ENFORCED

U. S. Department of Justice Will Prosecute Violators of the New Law.

Considerable interest has been aroused lately by the discussion of who would enforce the new dry measures which are to go into effect July 1st. This question has been definitely answered according to the following message from Washington, D. C.:

Enforcement of national wartime prohibition, effective next July 1, will be undertaken by the Department of Justice.

Attorney General Palmer in a statement Sunday declared that "as long as the act remains in force under its terms it becomes my duty to see that it is enforced like all other laws by prosecution of such persons as violate it." The Attorney General further asserted that he possessed no power to grant amnesty to anyone who might manufacture beer pending an interpretation of the law as to what percentage of alcoholic constituent brings beer within the meaning of the prohibition act.

The statement definitely settled the question of the agency to take up enforcement of the act which arose when Commissioner of Internal Revenue Roper let it be known that his bureau had neither funds nor a staff available when carrying out the act's enforcement.

The voluntary assumption by the Attorney General of the act's enforcement also relieves President Wilson of any delegation of authority under the Overman act, which it was thought might be necessary.

"HEARTS OF THE WORLD"

D. W. Griffith's supreme triumph, "Hearts of the World" will be the attraction at the Tabb Theatre, on Wednesday, May 7th. There will be two performances, one at 2:10 in the afternoon and the other at 8:10 in the evening. This is said to be the sweetest love story ever told and the scenes are laid in connection with the late war. This is said to be Mr. Griffith's greatest triumph, surpassing his famous "Birth of a Nation." A special orchestra will accompany the production, and every person in this city and county should avail themselves of the opportunity of seeing this great story of love and war.

SELLING OIL STOCK

Mr. W. C. Potts, of Paris, well-known in this city, has established headquarters at this office and is representing the Parboken Oil Co., of Paris, Ky. Mr. Potts is an old newspaper man and during his stay here last summer when he conducted the Automobile Contest for this paper and later when he inaugurated the Classified Column in this paper by his upright dealing and honesty made many friends and we are sure he will meet with success in his new line. The following clipping from the Bourbon News will be of interest:

"The Parboken Oil Company, with leases in Lee, Owsley and Estill counties, is making rapid strides and the stock is being scrambled for. The company is composed of the best business men in Bourbon county. The capital stock is 500,000 shares at par value of $1.00. There will be no bonus stock issued. A limited amount of stock will be issued at 50c a share. The management and officers of the company are very enthusiastic in the prospects of the big success of the organization."

Prof. Bruce Reynolds, recently a member of the Barrow Unit, has returned to his home in Lexington and accepted a position with a picture house in that city.

CONFERENCE THIS WEEK

Y. M. C. A. Conference Will be Held at the Presbyterian Church This Week.

According to advices received here from the Managing Board of the State Y. M. C. A. a conference will be held at the Presbyterian church in this city Thursday and Friday of this week.

Dr. W. A. Gausfield, of Danville, Hon. H. V. McChesney, of Frankfort, and Hon. L. F. Zerkoss, of Ashland, will be the speakers and a most interesting session is being looked forward to by those interested in this great work. The first session will be held Thursday night, May 2nd at 7:30, Friday morning at 9:30 a visit to the schools will be made and a meeting again in the evening at the church at 7:30. Everybody is cordially invited to attend.

LOCAL OIL NEWS

The Bradford Oil & Gas Co., on Monday struck its second well on the Apperson lease, in sight of the Court House, which is said to have made a much better showing than the first well and is estimated to be good from between 10 and 20 barrels. The sand was struck at a depth of a little more than 300 feet. The well will be shot and pumped in connection with the first well. Both of these wells which are estimated to be small producers seem to indicate that oil is in Montgomery county in paying quantities and it is not unlikely that a large pool may yet be discovered here.

Drillers on the J. R. Crooks lease are now down something over 800 feet but as yet have found no showing of oil. Yesterday afternoon the bit was reported to be stuck in the sand. This is the deepest well that has been sunk in the county, the outcome of which is being watched with much anxiety. It is reported the company operating this rig is prepared to go 2,500 feet and we sincerely hope a thorough test will be made.

LOCKRIDGE LANDS

Lt. Harry W. Lockridge, according to a message received here yesterday, landed at Newport News from France. Many friends here will be pleased to learn of his safe return. He expects to make a visit home shortly.

HURRAH FOR MONTGOMERY

Victory Loan Has Been Oversubscribed by Our Patriotic, Liberty Loving People.

We are more than proud to be able to report that old Montgomery county has gone over the top in the Victory Loan drive and while we were unable to get the exact figures our quota has been oversubscribed. Our allotment was $279,100.00.

This great loan was taken with very little soliciting and those in charge say it was the easiest of the five big drives to put over.

Montgomery county has proven her loyalty in every drive for every war purpose and we are proud of the fact that we live in so thoroughly an American, liberty loving community.

AVIATOR DOES MANY STUNTS

People Amazed at Daring and Bravery of the Skillful Young Pilot.

Through the courtesy of Capt. Herbert Schaffner, of Camp Knox, Mt. Sterling and Montgomery county citizens were given a rare treat Saturday evening and Sunday morning by Lt. Charles T. Skow, Pilot, and Sgt. James J. Lynch, Mechanician, of the 29th Aero Squadron, who were dispatched to this city. The aviator drove his machine from Lexington to Mt. Sterling a distance of 33 miles in 12 minutes. He reached a height of 7,000 feet and cut his engine off while passing Winchester and simply coasted here a distance of 14 miles. A large crowd was present at Woodford's farm near the city limits to receive the men. They were clean cut, manly gentlemen and were exceedingly courteous in answering the many, many questions and explaining the working, etc., of the machine. They were due to return to Lexington Saturday night but on account of a cold motor were forced to stay over until Sunday morning when some real "stunts" were put on. If G. Hoffman, Geo. C. Eastin, Paul Strother and William Day made flights with the aviator. (An account of the ride enjoyed by Mr. Hoffman will be found elsewhere). If the men coming here with the Flying Circus this week are any better than Lt. Skow, we would not miss seeing them for anything.

Cattle and horses were scared from noise of the motor; several superstitious negroes made many funny remarks. One cook ran into the house where she worked, exclaiming: "Lord, Missus, come out here; nobody in it and the Lord only knows what it will do."

While here they were entertained by Messrs. Hoffman, Eastin and Strother.

OUR BOYS DEFEATED

The Mt. Sterling High School team was defeated by the High School baseball team from Owensville at Horton's Park Friday afternoon by the score of 9 to 6. This won't do boys, get busy and win the next time out.

FLYING CIRCUS IS DELAYED

Will Not Arrive as Announced; Exact Time of Arrival to be Made Known Later.

The Flying Circus, composed of four aeroplanes, piloted by American, British, French and Italian aces did not arrive in this city this afternoon as had been previously announced, and are reported to be about two days late, owing to accidents and weather conditions. The exact time of arrival will be announced as soon as learned by the Liberty Loan Committee. During their stay in this city, they will make many flights, thrilling the inhabitants by their daring manoeuvres. It is expected the tops of buildings will be filled with people eager to watch the demonstration which is being put on in behalf of the Victory-Liberty Loan. Local people are very much interested in the machines and many applications have been received from persons desiring to accompany the pilots on "a trip to the sky."

The city will have as its guest of honor tomorrow (Wednesday) the Hon. Jonett Shouse, of Kansas, formerly of Lexington, Assistant Secretary of the Treasury. An elaborate luncheon has been arranged in his honor and at 1:30 he will make an address at the Court House. It is hoped a large crowd will be present to hear this gifted native son of Kentucky.

SPECIAL—A telegram just received states that, weather conditions permitting, the aeroplanes will arrive here Thursday night and will make flights Friday morning.

PICTURE DRAWS BIG CROWD

"The Price of Peace," the war picture that was shown at the Tabb Theatre all Sunday afternoon, drew immense crowds and the house was packed during the entire afternoon. The picture was very realistic and interesting and proved most enjoyable. No admission fee was charged and everything possible was done by Manager Small to make the crowd spend an enjoyable afternoon.

The W. C. T. U. will meet Thursday afternoon at the Rest Room at 3 o'clock. Come and bring a new member.

Public Speaking

Lt.-Colonel Henry H. Denhardt, of Bowling Green, candidate for the Democratic nomination for Governor, will address the voters at the Court House in this city. . . .

Saturday, May 3rd at 2 O'clock

He will state his position on the present tax law and other matters of vital interest to the people. Ladies cordially invited. . . .

WAKEFIELD-DAVIS REALTY CO.

SHELBYVILLE, KENTUCKY

IN THE ARCADE

The following items, descriptions of the sort of work done by the Americans in France during the last months of the war, were sent to the New York Times by Maj. Gen. J. F. Bell. They were received by him, he writes, from a distinguished officer, formerly in the 15th Division, but since promoted out of it, but he does not know who wrote them.

A slogging bunch with a job to do. A job in the mud that was dripping red. No swift advance, with a breaking through. To cheer them on to the goal ahead. But a dreary drive and a killing push. Into the sweep of a deadly fire. From machine-gun nests in the dotted brush. Through bloody mud and a mass of wire.

A slogging bunch in a grip with Fate. Where life was a span from breath to breath. Where every foot meant a missing mate. And every yard held the smell of death. No gallant dash to an open goal. But a sudden tramp through the crashing shell. Through dawns as stark as a broken soul. Through nights as black as the mouth of hell.

A slogging bunch through the endless hail. Where the line, iron-gutted, held its advance. With its chart of graves out the matted trail. That moved along through the woods of France. With a moment's pause where a mate might kneel. By a fallen pal who had paid his debt. Where the battered boche knew the flash of steel. Was the glint of a Yankee bayonet.

A slogging bunch with a job to do. No sudden leap with its cheering. But a grimmer work with redder hue.

YOU ARE PROUD of our victory. As an American you are proud of your share of the glory. Cheering for Victory is sentiment; paying for it is duty, just as much of a duty as paying your monthly bills.

HEROES BY HUNDREDS

Back from the firing line, the trenches, the hospitals, the skirmish line and the field camps is coming an endless stream of khaki-clad Yanks, flushed with victory, bright-eyed with anticipation.

Every day sees another shipload debark over east. Every day they are being rushed to the concentration camps for their discharge. Every day the trains are hurrying them homeward.

Not all of them got into the thick of it. Not all of them are wearing decorations. Not all of them are bearing wound stripes, thank God. But in every section of the land are heroes by hundreds.

And it's for us stay-at-homes to measure up to them.

They did their part. Let's do ours.

America's part in the world war is fast becoming an old story. But we can make it such a story that the world will never forget.

Up to this minute America has never fallen down on anything she undertook. She has always made good. Finished all she started. Poured into the maelstrom of war everything that was asked, men, money, munitions, supplies; faltered nowhere nor at nothing.

A truly fine record. Let's make it good right down to the last minute.

Let's finish right, fellows. Let's make this Victory-Liberty loan the final triumphant wonder of it all.

Do it? Of course we can. Subscribe your limit.

LEND again and make it a paid-up peace.

VICTORY LOAN PLEDGE

"I believe it is my duty as a loyal and patriotic American to support my Government in paying the debts necessarily incurred to win the war. Therefore I do hereby pledge my word to do all in my power to aid the Victory Liberty Loan Campaign that the sacrifices made by American civility shall not have been in vain."

The foregoing was adopted by the directors of the War Loan Organization in St. Louis as the official pledge to be taken Sunday at the inspirational mass meeting at Forest Park opening the Fifth and last loan drive. N. S. Gardner, director of publicity in the Eighth Federal Reserve District, requested that all citizens clip out the pledge and memorize it.

DON'T LET a wounded soldier hear you say that you "sacrificed" by selling a Liberty Bond below par. He knows what sacrifice is. He also knows that Uncle Sam will pay par on every promise when that promise matures.

TELLS OF THRILLS WHEN SHELLS FLY

MAN WHO SAW WAR ON FOUR FRONTS ESCAPES DEATH
MANY TIMES WHILE SERV-ING SOLDIERS.

Chicago.—More than 700 Y. M. C. A. workers saw service with the soldiers of the American expeditionary force in the front lines during the last months of the war.

Frank M. Van Epps, seriously wounded while serving as a Y. M. C. A. worker in the Argonne, told of some of his experiences in a talk at the Y. M. C. A. college here:

On the way to France last April on the Oronzio, Van Epps and 50 other "Y" men narrowly escaped drowning when the ship was torpedoed by a German U-boat.

Van Epps was divisional secretary of the Y. M. C. A. outfit. He worked with the Fifth division until the armistice was signed. He was dressed up in a doughboy's uniform when he arrived here. A limp and a kitbag slung over his shoulder containing what is left of his equipment complete his souvenirs of more than six months' service overseas.

Van Epps saw the war on four fronts in France and Alsace, serving in the first-line trenches on two of them. When the Oronzio was torpedoed on April 29 60 miles off the coast of Wales U-boats "got" two out of a convoy of seven steamships. The Oronzio went down in 12 minutes after she was struck, and Van Epps and other "Y" men lost all their baggage. They were picked up by a torpedo-boat destroyer and landed at Holyhead, Wales.

In Front Line.

In southern and middle Alsace, Van Epps was in the first-line trenches and at St. Mihiel, when the drive opened, he became a stretcher bearer after his supplies ran out. Getting word to shift to the Argonne, he traveled all night by train, on trucks and afoot, and spent the next three weeks sleeping in shell holes and trenches when he was not at work.

At Madedelle farm, on October 18, Van Epps and Thomas F. Hadley of Iowa, another Y. M. C. A. man, set up shop in an old barn. All but three of the twenty-five "Y" workers went back to get supplies. The barn had been under shell fire for several days, but Van Epps and Hadley decided it was good enough to sleep in. They built a bed of boxes of jam, with a tub of chewing tobacco for a pillow and lay down.

Half a mile back, an American battery was hammering the Germans, and two German airplanes came over looking for the position. They let go two bombs which landed on each side of the barn. Soon came a third, which struck the roof, bringing down a mass of rafters and beams and scattering shrapnel. A splinter was driven through the calf of one of Hadley's legs and a piece of shell tore through both of Van Epps' thighs.

After dressing stations and field hospitals had finished with them they spent half a day in an ambulance and then were put aboard a French hospital train, where they remained another two days. One of these days was Sunday, so Van Epps, at the suggestion of some of the doughboys, "put on" a service, conducting it propped up in his stretcher.

Soldiers to Study.

Paris.—With the arrival of General Rees from Washington on detail from the war department to take charge of the army educational work, progress has been rapid along the lines laid down in the program submitted by the Y. M. C. A. army educational commission. Text books required to satisfy the demands of the men for instructions are coming overseas rapidly, according to Prof. John Erskine of Columbia university, chairman of the "Y" commission; post schools are starting up at the rate of 40 to a division and groups of officers and men are being absorbed by French and British universities to the limit of their capacity.

General Praises Y. M. C. A.

Paris.—There are some fools in the Y. M. C. A., according to Brig. Gen. J. P. O'Neill of the Ninetieth division. "Our Y. M. C. A. is everything to be desired," said the general. "Among the employees are some fools. One of them was such a fool that he would not stay away from the front line, and he got so tied up with Boche shells and other projectiles that we were forced to recommend him for a Distinguished Service Cross. That is a sample of the men you have sent to us. Please keep this work up and whether I am commanding this division or not, the things that you have done will make a lasting impression upon it."

Honor "Y" Worker in Russia.

News that the general commanding the American and allied expedition in northern Russia had recommended Howard B. Merrill of New York, a Y. M. C. A. worker, for suitable recognition of his cool behavior during a surprise attack on the forces he was serving, is conveyed in a delayed cablegram received at the Y. M. C. A. national war work council offices.

Plan Educational Courses.

English universities are preparing to welcome the American officers and men designated to take collegiate, special or post-graduate courses there in accordance with the scheme of the army educational commission conducted by the United States army and the American Y. M. C. A.

The exhibit is attracting the greatest interest from the people of Lexington and all kinds of devices used in modern warfare from the smallest hand grenade to the big Bertha. The train was under the escort of veterans from the Western front, and the trophies proved highly interesting to the large crowd that viewed them. It was much more complete than the train which was here in the fall but was viewed by a much smaller crowd.

SOME SHOW WINDOWS
Several live-wire merchants have patriotic window displays that would do credit to a large city and are attracting large crowds. Among those who have extremely interesting windows are The H. H. Pieper Co., R. H. White & Co., Chenault & Orear and W. S. Lloyd. If you have not seen these windows be sure and look at them this week as they are truly worth while.

A SCHEME FOR RAISING REVENUE TO BUILD ROADS

(By Rodman Wiley, Commissioner of Public Roads.)

Mr. James M. Weathers, Cashier of the Farmers & Merchants Bank at Elkton, Kentucky, has mapped out a system of roads for Todd County and he proposes to get one thousand men of the county to agree to donate $100.00 per year for a sufficient number of years to build the proposed system.

$100,000 would be available each year from his plan in addition to the regular county road fund.

He states that he has laid the matter before three hundred men and every one has agreed to it and the success of the scheme seems assured.

SOLDIER'S LETTER

We're Coming Back to You.

Many months ago we left you, dear friends of old Kentucky state, to come to France and Belgium to show Germany her fate. We left you with our hearts bowed down for you're folks we love the most; then too, the trial on which we came was marked by death's mile posts. We arrived in sunny France, at Brest, our voyage o'er quite "tame", but six weeks from the time we sailed, found us in the trenches in Lorraine. For five weeks we held the lines, schooling ourselves at war, proving to Fritz his opinion of us was entirely wrong by far. Then from Lorraine we "shouldered arms" our faces toward Verdun, to a front which war proclaimed by all impossible—advance means doom. The great advance in the Argonne words don't you remember? the time 'twas in the end of September, and your friends were there—and mine; six days of rain, filth, shells and blood—days lived in hell's own gates with your friends "going west" and mine, to save the good old States. But you just bet your last good cent that for each chap "gone down" there were three of "Fritzie's" comrades strewn on that shell swept ground. And "Jerry" could not stop us, tho' tired we kept up step; and when at last relief came he had learned of Yankee "pep." From the Argonne we went eastward up into Saint Mihiel, when the Boche again were promptly taught—a Kentuckian won't keep still. The little Belgium called us to come to her at once—to help her and the Poles show up Germany a dunce. At Olsene, in Belgium we revived the spirit of yore, till on the fields of Flanders lay a thousand Boche or more. Kamerad! Kamerad! Kamerad! Came from each of Jerry's men and a second drive was needless for they knew 'twas their Amen. It was then that news of peace came, the word which meant so much to all the Allied nations as well as those in Dutch. And now we're coming back to you, those of us who are

"Bite" in tobacco comes either from poor leaf or wrong "ripening."

We use for VELVET only the finest Kentucky Burley. But we don't stop there.

We put millions of pounds of this tobacco away every year, in wooden hogsheads, for Nature to patiently ripen and mellow.

There are quicker ways, but they leave some teeth in.

The VELVET way makes the friendlier kind of tobacco. You can always go to it for comfort without a "come-back."

"HEARTS OF THE WORLD"
A LOVE STORY OF THE GREAT WAR
BATTLE SCENES ON THE BATTLEFIELDS OF FRANCE
(UNDER AUSPICES BRITISH WAR OFFICE)

Surpassing 'The Birth of a Nation'

To stop at a little village; to see the peaceful life—the lovers with their gentle wooing—the twilight minstrels under the faithful moon—the happy homes—the contented villagers—AND THEN

Hear War's alarms; see the troops go marching off; sweethearts parted; husbands, fathers under arms; hear the tread of tramping legions; the thrust and roar of battle; the gallant charge, the massed combat, AND—in the village the coming of the Hunnish hordes, the spray of shrapnel and the shock of shell.

To see the magnificent womanhood of France, sublime devotion, eternal faith, undying love and heroic fortitude. To be in that terrific drama of the Western front as it is depicted by that master of the cinema art, DAVID WARD GRIFFITH.

The cross roads oracle says: Fifty years ago farmin' was hard on a mun's muscle, today farmin' is more a matter of brains.

It is not what you have today, but what you save, that counts in the long run. Buy War Savings Stamps and you will not fear the future.

DRAW A LESSON of patriotism from every soldier you meet on the street. The soldier was willing to risk his life to keep the German hordes out of the United States. He has successfully accomplished his job. Now your job is to see that the soldier is paid his wages, and that those in Europe, who have been asked to stay over there to help preserve order, are brought back. Are your dollars going to be slakers while the soldiers are still called upon to endure the hardships of military duty along the Rhine?

IF YOU FAIL to pay your personal business debts you can only be placed in jail. If you fail to lend your just share to pay the Nation's war debts you will be called a slaker. You know what your share is.

WAR HAS TAUGHT us thrift. We may save two things at once in the Victory-Liberty loan—our own money and our Nation's honor.

VINOL MAKES WEAK WOMEN STRONG

Positive—Convincing Proof

We publish the formula of Vinol to prove convincingly that it has the power to create strength.

By Cod Liver and Beef Peptones, Iron and Manganese Peptones, Iron and Ammonium Citrate, Lime and Soda Glycophosphates, Cascaria.

Any woman who buys a bottle of Vinol for a weak, run-down, nervous condition and finds after giving it a fair trial it did not help her, will have her money returned.

You see, there is no guess work about Vinol. Its formula proves there is nothing like it for all weak, run-down, overworked, nervous men and women and for feeble old people and delicate children. Try it once and be convinced.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

We are authorized to announce as a candidate for the Democratic nomination for Representative of the 95th Legislative district (Montgomery and Menefee counties) at the August Primary, 1919,
THOMAS L. CAUDEL.

TAX LAW NOT PARTY MEASURE.

In his zeal to serve his party, the editor of the Gazette last week made the following inaccurate, and we might say uncalled for, reference to us:

"The Advocate continues to howl about the 'Jesse James Tax Law' as if we were fools that it appears to us like a fairly equitable proposition insofar as it is applicable to city and farm property for the reason that it is entirely in keeping with characteristic Democratic practices with respect to taxation. The Advocate supported the men who enacted the bill and are rather inconsistent in 'knocking' it now."

To begin with, the present tax law is not any more a Democratic measure than it is a Republican measure, as practically every Republican in both the House and Senate voted for it. The present state administration supported it, as did most of the Democratic members, but that does not make the Democratic party any more responsible for its adoption than the Republican party, since the Republicans in the General Assembly could have killed it, had they felt disposed, but on the contrary they were its ardent champions as the journals of both Houses show. So far as our attitude is concerned, we have opposed this law since it was first agitated and supported Judge T. L. Caudel, of Menefee county, for the Legislature from this district chiefly because he announced his intention of voting against it. We are again supporting him for a like reason. If there is anything inconsistent about that we fail to see it.

As everybody knows, who knows anything of local conditions, we are not in sympathy with the present state administration and have never hesitated about saying so. We are Democrats, however, and want to see our party nominate the best men available, for every office. The Republicans have little to offer the people in the person of Mr. Ed. Marrow and before the regular election day we have no doubt but that a large majority of the voters of the state will reach the same conclusion.

NEW EXCHANGE TELEPHONE RATES EFFECTIVE MAY 1, 1919

A new schedule of telephone exchange rates becomes effective in Mt. Sterling, Ky., May 1, by direction of the Operating Board of the United States Telegraph and Telephone Administration, acting under the order of the Postmaster General of the United States.

As you know, all of the lines and property of this company are in the possession, control and are being operated by the United States Government under the direction of the Postmaster General of the United States.

The new rates are necessary in order that additional revenue may be secured by the government to meet the increased operating expenses. The causes which make greater telephone revenue necessary are due to the new conditions and the new price levels introduced by the war and are entirely beyond the control of the United States Telegraph and Telephone Administration of the Telephone Company.

More than two years ago the Company foresaw that the telephone system would be operated at a loss unless the rates could be adjusted to meet the increasing costs of all elements entering into the production of service. A similar rate adjustment would have been unavoidable under private control and the new rate schedule is practically the same we would have sought in 1918 if the government had not taken possession of our property.

As stated by the Postmaster General, the owners of the telephone system do not benefit in any way from rate changes. Practically all of the increased operating expenses which require this additional revenue are due to increased wages paid to employees to enable them to meet the new conditions of life in the present day.

It is neither practicable nor desirable to reduce wages, and so far as wages are concerned we believe that portion of the increased operating expenses to be permanent.

The new rate schedule is fair and reasonable and the percentage of increased revenue which it will produce is much lower than the increased cost of other services and commodities of a similar character.

Complete detailed information about the new rates may be obtained at the manager's office. We are making every effort to change our records promptly, and your courteous consideration will be appreciated. The new rate for your service is shown on your statement for May 1.

COUNTY HAS REST ROOM
A recent letter from the county agent at Hartford, Ky., has the following to say about an unusual rest room which has been developed for the farmers' wives when they are in town:

"We have at last gotten our much needed rest room completed. We have for a regular matron one of the young ladies of the town who will welcome any of the ladies that come in from the country. The funds for this room were secured from the business men of the town, the ladies and the county court. As the Red Cross is using the rest room for headquarters it is, of course, helping to pay the bill."

HERE'S A NEW POEM

It is Proving Popular and Inspiring at Liberty Loan Rallies.

The following inspirational poem is being used to put pep into public meetings these days. It seems to release the pentup energy of the audience, and bring it all to bear on the subject in hand. It has been found effective and it is suggested that it be read or recited at all Victory Loan mass meetings:

Are we true Americans?
True blue.
Do we love the boys who won?
We do.
Have we lost our native pep?
Not yet!
Are we for the Vic-try Loan?
You bet!

EDITOR WRITES ACCOUNT OF HIS OWN WEDDING

Editor "Lon" Hovermale, of the Licking Valley Courier, writes the following account of his own wedding, which occurred a few days ago:

"L. T. Hovermale, editor of the Courier, and Miss Myrtle Griffiths, of White Oak, were married at the residence of the bride's father, Mr. W. J. Griffiths; Sunday, April 20, 1919, Esq. Ed. Day officiating.

"This much is the news item, and probably as much as is necessary to write, but here is an opportunity to write an account of a wedding a way that I never dared do before, and the chance is so rare that I can not miss it. It is one time when the truth can be told without the fear of death or great bodily harm.

"The groom (that's me) is 48 years old, has tried almost everything in the gamut of life's endeavor and has not succeeded at any of them in a manner that is discoverable without the aid of a microscope. His poverty is his most noticeable possession and he has never electrified the world with his brilliancy. His law license is his strongest proof that he is a lawyer, and all the Courier readers know how poor a stick he is at the newspaper game. He is as homely as Conrad Lagrange, Harold Bell Wright's champion ugly man, and as he looks back over his past life he sees nothing but a pathway strewn with the rugged ruins of busted anticipations.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Griffiths, aged 22, and is really a girl of remarkable beauty. She does not sing, play the piano nor eloquently. She is not a social leader and makes no attempt to set the local fashions. Her chief accomplishments are the arts of home making and good cooking. I am trying to write an absolutely truthful article, and lest my readers say that my love lends a halo to the description of the bride I will not attempt a further dissertation. In proof of my statement that the bride is beautiful I have only to say that most of my friends greet me with: 'Hovermale, how the devil did such an ugly man as you win such a beautiful bride?'

"The young couple have gone to housekeeping on Broadway and the associate editor insists that he be allowed to extend the Courier's congratulations and express his hopes that their joys may be large and their troubles little ones."

CLUBS PROSPER

The boys and girls, who were members of agricultural clubs in 1918 under the supervision of the Extension Division of the College of Agriculture of Kentucky, bought and handled 2,170 hogs, 215 beef cattle, 62 dairy cattle and 878 sheep. Most of this stock was bought in the spring and the work of feeding the animals or preparing them for fairs or the market was carried on until in the autumn. As the major portion of the animals bought, especially the hogs, were purebred the value of the work to the State was very great. The value to the children themselves is, of course, beyond estimate.

The advantage of the edge dropping system over the round hole system of planting is that the Black Hawk accurate dropping will increase the yield over the round hole plate planter enough to pay for itself in planting a very few acres, as illustrated in Table No. 4.

NOTE FOLLOWING TABLES

Table 1	160 square rods 43560 square feet
ONE ACRE CONTAINS	3240 hills of corn planted 3 ft. 6 in. apart each way 3555 hills of corn planted 3 ft. 6 in. apart each way 3920 hills of corn planted 3 ft. 6 in. apart each way 4343 hills of corn planted 3 ft. 6 in. apart each way 4840 hills of corn planted 3 ft. 6 in. apart each way 9720 stalks, if planted 3 in a hill 3 ft. 6 in. apart each way 10665 stalks, if planted 3 in a hill 3 ft. 6 in. apart each way 11760 stalks, if planted 3 in a hill 3 ft. 6 in. apart each way 12888 stalks, if planted 3 in a hill 3 ft. 6 in. apart each way 14088 stalks, if planted 3 in a hill 3 ft. 6 in. apart each way

Table 2	100 large ears of corn make a bushel

120 small ears of corn	make a bushel

Table 3	If each stalk bears a medium sized ear of corn the following will be the yield per acre:
Planted 3 ft. 6 in. each way and 3 stalks in a hill	68.3 bushels
Planted 3 ft. 6 in. each way and 3 stalks in a hill	66.9 bushels
Planted 3 ft. 6 in. each way and 3 stalks in a hill	100.9 bushels
Planted 3 ft. 6 in. each way and 3 stalks in a hill	78.9 bushels
Planted 3 ft. 6 in. each way and 3 stalks in a hill	88.0 bushels

Table 4	When corn is planted 3 ft. 8 in. apart each way a loss of one medium sized ear from
Every 2nd hill equals 14.7 bu. per acre, worth at present market prices	$11.70
Every 3rd hill equals 9.8 bu. per acre, worth at present market prices	$7.84
Every 4th hill equals 6.8 bu. per acre, worth at present market prices	$4.84
Every 10th hill equals 2.9 bu. per acre, worth at present market prices	$2.30
Every 20th hill equals 1.4 bu. per acre, worth at present market prices	$1.15
The above table was figured at 80c per bushel.

Bonds of Last Loan Nearly All Paid For

Lewis B. Franklin, director of the War Loan Organization of the Treasury, estimates that approximately 40 per cent, or $3,000,000,000, of the nearly $7,000,000,000 subscribed in the Fourth Liberty Loan was sold to buyers who took $1,000 in bonds or under that amount. These bonds are either paid for or nearly paid for, and are not in the banks in the form of loans except to a very small extent. They are being liquidated by weekly or monthly installment payments and will be almost entirely paid for by the time the Victory Loan campaign opens. This kind of bond selling, according to the War Loan Director, prevents increased loans at the banks, does not cause inflation and holds down further increase in the cost of living.

Isn't It The Truth?

Mr. Dooley's observations on "The End of the War" have an appropriateness at this juncture, that is to say, if the "tax collector" is regarded in the light of an aftermath belonging to many other realms than the financial. "And so the war is over?" asks Mr. Hennessy. "Only part iv it," replies Mr. Dooley. "The part that we see in the pitcher papers is over, but the tax collector will continue his part iv the war with relentless fury. Cavity charges are not the only wane in a rate war."

As the first Mt. Sterling man to give Mt. Sterling "the once over" from the sky, The Advocate has asked me to write of my feelings on my recent flight, with Lt. Skow, in an airplane, last Saturday afternoon. 'Twill be hard to tell of one's feelings but 'twas an experience I shall never forget. Just before getting into the machine to be strapped in place I was asked to sign a waiver of all rights of a claim against the U. S. Government for any accident which might occur; this I did and handed to Sgt. Lynch, ing, which, naturally, made me want to make the same request as the negro to the officer on the boat: "Oh, Mr. Captain, stop the ship I WANT TO GET OUT AND WALK." but I guess by that time I was too scared to tell him my last wishes. We were off at last, or rather the earth seemed to be leaving us, and looking over the side the first familiar thing which met my gaze was Mchelpach cemetery (pleasant, I don't think) and, believe me, from where I sat it looked as if there was plenty of room for one more man; that one was ME. We sailed along

As an individual Sterling Chief is what a stock horse should be: Fine, plenty of type and finish, good size, 1533 $\frac{1}{4}$ hands high, weight 1150 pounds, splendid bone and foot, netion absolutely straight and true in all five gait, perfect disposition and a natural tailed horse, this feature being of importance of breeders, having never been worked on in any way. Color, rich dark chestnut.

As to his produce he has sired seven that brought an average of $1357, and an indefinite number that sold for four or five hundred. smoothly, however, and I began to regain my confidence and composure but an occasional dip or "bank" (when the machine would be on its side in a turn) opened up another think or so. You can not speak to the Pilot, nor he to you, but if he had ever turned around and asked me if I had had enough and if I would like to go down, I am quite sure that those on the ground some 1,500 feet below could have heard me yell back my answer, "I DO!"—and I sure did. The sight below is beautiful; the green and plowed fields standing out so prominently in their varied colors; while we were low it was easy to distinguish the different buildings, churches, school, etc., but it seemed that no matter which way I looked old Machpelah was always right below me. You could see the buggies and the machines for miles around on the roads stop, the occupants get out and gaze up at you, the people and vehicles looking like dolls and doll furniture. I thought of the boys "over there" who are so anxious to get home but I am quite sure when we did the dips and banks that there is not a one who was more anxious to get back to U. S. soil than I. Someone has said that Mr. Woodford, who owns the field from which we started, gets $150 an acre for rent of this ground for tobacco land. I know one man who, if he had had the $500 Saturday, would have given that price for—not an acre but a couple of feet of this soil to stand on. Lt. Skow, however, was most careful and painstaking and showed that he knew his business and really did give me a most delightful ride. The fact though that my curiosity has been satisfied and I have had the experience I think satisfies me and although I may never get so high again, either in this life or the next one, I am glad to have had the flight and to know that I have been higher than a good many of our citizens ever will be: it is most fascinating and although one realizes that he takes his life in his hands, or rather places his life in the hands of the Pilot, I feel, and which can best be understood by those familiar with Ben King's "If I should die tonight" that

TRAINING LITTLE CHILDREN

Suggestions by Mothers Who Have Been Kindergartners.

Build up Virtues and the Faults
Will Disappear; Praise Will Do
More Good Than a Dozen Scoldings

By MRS. ELVIRA HYATT

It pays to have high ideals for our children, and to respect their individuality. Much can be accomplished by expecting children to be good, and by showing them that we trust them.

We should never call a child "bad," never wound his self-respect. This does not mean that his naughty actions should be "glossed over," but, as one wise educator has expressed it, we should realize that every fault is simply the absence of some virtue and we should try to build up that quality in which the child is deficient rather than condemn him for that which he has not.

Build up the virtues, and the faults will disappear. If a child is selfish, we should dwell on unselfishness; if the child is untidy, on neatness; if slow, on quickness; and we should always remember to praise even the slightest sign of the virtue we are working to cultivate. A child will try to live up to the thing for which he is praised. "How quiet and helpful my little Peggy is today," will do more good than a dozen scoldings about noise and mischief.

Stories can be told to arouse and stimulate high ideals. Stories have a wonderful educational value and almost any lesson can be taught in story form. Tell stories about birds, trees, flowers, animals, great and good men, simple stories of home and family life, stories from history and from the Bible. The eager little minds are ready for anything, you wish to give them, and if you are a natural story teller great indeed is your opportunity. Ideals of right conduct, love of family and sympathy with every living thing can all be given through the right use of stories.

Much has been said and written about pre-natal influence, but volumes more are needed on post-natal influences. One of the first things a baby learns is to "smile back" at his mother, and in all his earliest years the child reflects the attitude of those around him. He imitates the things which he sees and hears, in order to understand them, and "As the twig is bent, the tree's inclined." A true mother leads a consecrated life. She will always be absolutely truthful and will keep every promise made to her child. She will recognize the good in all things and will never speak ill of anyone in her child's presence. She will keep away all thoughts of fear, and will awaken a spirit of loving service toward others and a growing belief in the Power which is within himself, until at last he grows into a recognition of the universal love and goodness which underlie the whole life.

Please pass this article on to a friend and thus help Uncle Sam reach all the mothers of the country.

THE ASHES OF WAR

Our burned out Belgium and the devastated wastes of northern France the ashes of war are lying deeply. There is the home of desolation.

Hills and valleys, uplands and meadows, all are dotted with the tiny crosses that tell tale of an incredible harvest of death.

And in the faces of the people are lines of sorrow that the years will never completely efface.

America, thank God, escaped all this.

There are thousands of American homes where gold stars, emblazoned on the windows, where sadness, where memory is fraught with woe.

But compared to stricken Europe our payment for the rescue of the world was but as the dying echo of humanity's shrill cry of heartbreak. America was but caught in the

COULD HARDLY STAND ALONE

Terrible Suffering From Headache,
Sideache, Backache, and Weakness, Relieved by Cardui,
Says This Texas Lady.

Gonzales, Tex.—Mrs. Minnie Philpot, of this place, writes: "Five years ago I was taken with a pain in my left side. It was right under my left rib. It would commence with an aching and extend up into my left shoulder and on down into my back. By that time the pain would be so severe I would have to take to bed, and suffered usually about three days. . . I suffered this way for three years, and got to be a mere skeleton and was so weak I could hardly stand alone. Was not able to go anywhere and had to let my house work go. . . I suffered awful with a pain in my back and I had the headache all the time. I just was unable to do a thing. My life was a misery, my stomach got in an awful condition, caused from taking so much medicine. I suffered so much pain. I had just about given up all hopes of our getting anything to help me.

One day a Birthday Almanac was thrown in my yard. After reading its testimonials I decided to try Cardui, and am so thankful that I did, for I began to improve when on the second bottle. . . I am now a well woman and feeling fine and the cure has been permanent for it has been two years since my awful bad health. I will always praise and recommend Cardui." Try Cardui today. E 78 outer edge of the maelstrom that drew millions down to their deaths. America has reason to be thankful for all time.

And greater reason to be glad to pay her share in dollars and cents.

France and Belgium, most of all, paid the blood toll. France and Belgium more than any others were crushed under the invader's heel. France and Belgium carry today and will carry for years the most unsightly scars.

Most too, they will need assistance in the work of reconstruction.

America must extend a helping hand in this, just as she did in their final rescue. Our obligation is not lessened now that peace is come.

For these two stood between us and the Brute.

Part of the next Victory-Liberty Loan will be devoted to this reclamation. And whatever of mere dollars is needed America must in honor supply.

You who escaped the call, who did not serve, whose only sacrifice was a bond purchase that was not sacrifice at all, must keep these things in mind.

The ashes of war fell not upon your homesteads.

Keep the ashes of regret from out your hearts.

Help Uncle Sam wear the badge of honor.

LOCAL OIL MARKET

At the local oil exchange last night very few sales were made. $2.25 was offered for Flesher and $3.20 for Wright. Koma was active but owners declined to turn loose of their stock. This company is reported to have brought in a 300 barrel well yesterday. Kentucky Star has also shown a nice increase owing to recent wells brought in. It is reported the Wright Co. will increase its dividends of 5 per cent monthly and it is likely that a 20 per cent dividend will be paid July 1. This company is in an exceedingly prosperous condition. Several new companies which are in the organization process have representatives in this city and the stock is being eagerly sought.

TO FLY ACROSS

Capt. Frederick P. Raynham, British aviator, and Harry Hawker, Australian aviator, probably will "hop off" today in the trans-Atlantic flight if weather conditions are favorable. Capt. Raynham had intended to start Monday, but a cross wind prevented. The United States Navy Department has announced the personnel of the crews of the three big seaplanes that will begin an attempt early in May to cross the Atlantic.

STORE ROBBED

The store of Ringo & Richards at Ewington, was broken into and robbed last Thursday night. The store was blown with nitroglycerin and about $25 in money taken, nothing else was disturbed. This makes the second time within the past six months that this store has been robbed. No clue has been found by the authorities.
